Class History — Freshman Year

Six hundred and fifteen Freshmen entered the halls of the High School of Commerce, Wednesday, September 5, 1973 filled with much excitement and anticipation for the experiences, challenges, and accomplishments which lay ahead during the next three years.

The year began with the issuance of Freshman Handbooks and the new School Handbook for Parents and Students which outlined the rights and responsibilities of students. Freshmen were also introduced to G.O., rallies, club meetings, and various athletic activities.

In December Freshman elections were held. Voted into office were: Lannette Wilkerson, President; Kim Rousseau, Vice-President; and Marisa Brown, Secretary. Student Council members were Robin Brown, Christine Glennie, Elizabeth Green, Rachel Joffe, Valerie King, and Louise Patrakis. Elected Representatives from each homeroom served on the Freshman Executive Board.

During the year, for the first time, Freshmen were invited to the Senior Christmas Dance. Two months later, students and faculty planned and participated in Black History Week activities, which were held February 11 through 15. The rock group, "First Gear", gave a school-wide concert April 8 which helped perk everyone up after the long winter months. At this time, competitive auditions were held for places in the Concert Choir; eight members were selected for this coveted award.

Each of the sports teams excelled during their seasons, especially the J. V. Basketball team, whose record was 20-1.

Later, in the spring of the year, students were invited to the Civic Center to attend the Skills of the '70's Program sponsored by the Greater Springfield Chamber of Commerce.

Time seemed to pass quickly and soon elections were again held for class offices. Elected to represent the Junior class were: Denise Catellier, President; Marisa Brown, Vice-President; and Abygail Gonzalez, Secretary. Patricia Alli, Sandy Bartish, Zenaida Gomez, Sherry Harrington, Debra Lee and Cindy Robbins comprised the Student Council.

As our Freshman year drew to a close, we looked ahead to a year that would be more challenging and rewarding for each and everyone of us.

Class History — Junior Year

On September 6, 1974 the class of '76 after an all-too-short summer vacation, stepped through Commerce's doors as Juniors. We lingered in the halls greeting old friends and welcoming members of the Freshmen class, helping them get adjusted to our now familiar surroundings. We tried to give them guidance but they soon learned it was better to ask a faculty member for directions (A faculty member wouldn't tell them Room 318 was on the ground floor).

We were now entering the challenge of skilled subjects; shorthand, bookkeeping and typewriting. Also, participation in activities began with the March of Dimes Walk-a Thon in October with students and teachers completing twenty-five miles. A successful bloodmobile drive was held. Students from the Art Department contributed to the Bicentennial celebration by exhibiting paintings and murals of Springfield's historical places and moments. The National Honor Society initiated an in-school tutoring program.

In November, probably the most important and memorable event, was the day our class rings arrived. We walked tall and proud displaying our rings.

The Concert Choir, always in popular demand, performed at City Hall in conjunction with the Mayor's annual Christmas message; this marked their first time on television.

Professional groups entertained during the year, "Long Island Sound", "Maryville College", and "Up with People".

Half of the year had already gone by. Rating cards were the big issue at this time. We would be rated on our character. These rating cards would probably determine whether we would be accepted in a college or procure a job.

Now the moment we were anxiously awaiting had finally come. Our Junior Prom held in April at the Oaks Inn, was the social event of the year. Our class spirit was an indispensable factor in this success. Denise Frisby reigned as prom queen with her appointed court: Helene Duchano, Laurie Ely, Margarita Medina, and Annie Rivera.

All of our sports teams, (football, basketball, baseball, soccer, hockey, bowling, golf and wrestling) enjoyed good seasons. Commerce's spirit both for participants and spectators was outstanding. The girls and boys basketball teams won invitations to the Western Massachusetts Tournament.

In May elections for Senior Class officers were held. Elected were Class President, Steve Judycki; Vice-President, Marisa Brown; Secretary, Sharon Smith. Student Council members were Antoinette Dionne, Ann Green, Kim Hardy, Adelina Rivera, Cindy Robbins, and Robin Timothy.

We also had the excitement of knowing we were ordering our senior hats. Then came Class Day when we sang "Morning has Broken" to the seniors as we awaited our first time to sit "center aisle," a symbol of seniority.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 3, 1975, we returned to school, realizing this would be our last and most exciting and challenging year.

The excitement began with all seniors obtaining their senior hats and welcoming the Freshmen. Our '76 bicentennial hats designated our class as historically unique. Our democratic way of involving the entire class necessitated our president holding the first class meeting to determine a suggested change in senior class activities; a combined prom and banquet. However, tradition prevailed; the prom and banquet will be separate.

Our first accomplishment occurred when we placed 118 seniors on the honor roll. Mr. Sweeney extended congratulations, commenting that this was the first time in his ten years as principal that such an outstanding academic record was achieved.

Our eagerness for community and school service is exemplified by participation in activities: Toys for Tots, sponsored by the Commerce staff; the Junior Red Cross staff supervised the collection for the Guatemala earthquake victims; Participated in two bloodmobiles, a Salvation Army Drive, and the Carnation sale for the Africian Relief Fund. Our Concert Choir again responded to a Command Performance at City Hall. The National Honor Society continued its tutorial program.

Commerce's Girls' Basketball Team did an outstanding job and was truly awarded the recognition that they so greatly deserved when they were awarded city championship. The boys' basketball team earned runner-up for the city championship. They also won the Drury Christmas Basketball Tournament. As usual, in all the other sports (hockey, soccer, baseball, football, bowling, wrestling) the Commerce spirit prevailed.

After our final assembly, Class Day, May 14, the traditional senior events begin. The Class Banquet and dance is scheduled for May 15 at the Oaks. The senior prom will be held on May 22, at Twin Hill Country Club, with our lovely queen, Brenda Pickney, and her charming court: Margarita Medina, Robin Provost, Annie Rivera, and Carmela Ruggiero.

The Class of '76 will be graduated on June 7.

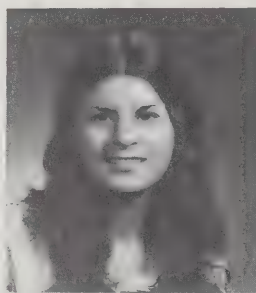

The Senior Class of '76 would like to say "Thank You" to Mr. Sweeney, Dr. Midura, Mr. Troy, Mr. Basili, the faculty, and personnel of the High School of Commerce for guiding us through our three years.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1976, feel it is of the utmost importance to leave, in writing, our last will and testament to future classes.

1. To Mr. Sweeney, Dr. Midura, Mr. Troy, and Mr. Basili, we leave our deep appreciation for their endless work in our behalf.
2. Carmella Ruggiero leaves Mr. Serafino a magic wand to help him get every senior a fantastic job.

3. Two anonymous girls would like to leave all their forged dismissals to Mr. Troy.
4. Theresa Canavan leaves all her written answers in her books to the next person who uses the same books.
5. Cindy Bushey leaves Miss Kalloch a book on how to grow plants.
6. Cynthia and Carmen leave the lunch table to Sue, Michelle, Carla, and Debbie; keep up the laughs!
7. Tammy Mascaro leaves Mr. Gormally a new ruler.
8. Kim Rousseau leaves Mrs. Gagnon with a stack of coloring books for next year's students.
9. Toni Dionne leaves a can of bug spray to Mr. Basili.
10. Orsola Iannone leaves Mr. Zemla saying "Did you do it?"
11. The gym leaders leave Mrs. O'Dell very tired.
12. Mr. Conchieri's third-period class leaves him still saying, "And what kind of gum are you throwing out today?"
13. Valerie leaves Mr. Forrant another class full of students just like her.
14. Robin Brown and Michael Brightwell leave the auditorium . . . finally.
15. Lynn Pasteris leaves Mr. Sweeney a girl of his choice from the future Senior class.
16. A "Short- per son" leaves a "bald-person" a headache to go with his giant excederin.
17. Louise and Lynn leave happily because they finally have their diamonds.
18. Nancy Phillips and Maria Rubelo leave a recording of their laughter to keep Mr. Allen's jokes alive.
19. Doug Nadeau leaves himself to the class of '77.
20. Anna Basile leaves Commerce in her little yellow bug.
21. The Class of '76 leaves Dr. Midura a pair of hip huggers to greet the Freshmen Class.
22. To this year's class couple, Cathy Siano and Glenn Ladd, we leave a set of handcuffs to keep them together.
23. The girls of '76 leave Commerce three guys to every girl.
24. The Student Council leaves not having picked up one cigarette butt from the smoking area at lunch.
25. Anna Accerra and Lucy Crupi leave Mrs. O'Dell still trying to figure out who's who.
26. Marisa Brown leaves her political power to anybody who can handle it.
27. The Class of '76 leaves Joyce Williams a can of STP for her boyfriend's GTO.
28. Terry Berthiaume and Margaret Eggleston leave Mr. Basili his own car to go to the hockey games.
29. Elaine DeRouin leaves Mr. Zemla wiggling hysterically around the classroom.
30. I would like to leave Mr. Hurley one complete matched suit for old times' sake.
31. Caduceus leaves Mr. Ciesluk a library full of poetic books.
32. The Class of '76 leaves Mr. Ryan 101 new stories to tell the freshmen.
33. Shirley Pleasant leaves Mrs. Williams trying to find someone to do her dirty work.
34. We leave Miss Meehan 200 extra filing boxes for her future classes.
35. Toni, Bunny, Lisa, Sandy, Ramona, Vanessa, Cheryl, Karen, and Pam leave Mr. Martin a table full of girls to converse with at second lunch.
36. Toni Merritt leaves Mr. Norman a few pennies to save for his trip to Africa.
37. Ricky Scott leaves Mr. Sweeney a book of prayers for next year's seniors.
38. Lauren Wells leaves Commerce all the torn and snagged stockings resulting from the splintered wooden chairs.
39. Lannette and Dianna leave Mr. Basili a tape recording saying "What are you two doing out of class?"
40. Periods 1 and 5 leave Mr. Trespas a new book of Mr. Allen's jokes — anything would be better.
41. Wendy Heilig leaves Mr. Czech a smile to brighten his day.
42. To the future Commerce bowling team; Wayne, Rick, and Ernie leave "Good Luck" and "Knock 'em Dead."
43. Joy Provost leaves Mr. Trespas with his scientific experiments.
44. Terry leaves Mrs. Cabana and Mr. Phillips her laugh to remember her by.
45. Donna Green leaves Mrs. Fischer all her late excuses.
46. We leave Mr. Sweeney a new red jacket.
47. Robin Brantley leaves Commerce's reputation to the Junior Class.
48. The Class of '76 leaves the nurse a lie detector to help her see who's faking they're sick.
49. We, the girls of the Senior Class, leave Dr. Midura with a smoke detector.
50. I, Bridget Streeter, leave Elaine Caney, Denise Stanton, and Donna Lappie with the wonderful memories we have shared at Commerce.
51. The concert choir leaves Mr. Conway a piano in tune.
52. Carla Kravitz leaves Mr. Corcoran and Mr. Hurley a new book of jokes.
53. Second-period class leaves Mr. Alminas with a year's subscription for Drama lessons.
54. Hector Bonano leaves all the girls heartbroken . . . to next year's wolf.
55. Robin Brantley leaves Mr. Carrier a class full of automatic note recorders.
56. Maria Costa and Mara Rubelo leave Mr. Conchieri with another student from Indian Orchard to aggravate him.
57. Lynn, Louise, and Rachel leave Mr. Gormally their lunch table to three more loudmouthed girls.
58. Adelina and Zenaida leave Commerce with the echoes of their voices in the hallways.
59. Linda leaves Mr. Burgess a book on "Famous Indians of the Past 200 Years."
60. The Newspaper Staff leaves Miss DiSanti with a new set of nerves for next year's staff.
61. The Senior Drill Team leaves Mrs. Vaughn with a team that can follow directions.
62. Robin Brown leaves Mr. Hyfantis . . . alone.
63. Della Wimes leaves Mr. Conchieri a checkbook and a full set of records that can never be balanced.
64. Debbie O'Connor and Wendy Heilig leave Mr. Alminas with a yawn.
65. Carmela Gagliarducci leaves Mr. Norman with the hope that some day he'll pronounce her name correctly.
66. Barbara Lewis leaves Miss Costa's speech class . . . speechless.
67. Phyllis Hannah leaves all her luck to her sister Regina.
68. Diana Brown leaves Mr. Coleman a muzzle for his mouth.
69. Period 2 Art Class leaves Mr. Coleman some food stamps so he won't have to crash Art 3 class parties.
70. Nathaniel White leaves Mr. Ferrigno a leather jacket with his collar up and an Elvis Presley Hairdo singing "You Ain't Nothing But a Hound Dog."
71. Cheryl Vaughan leaves Mr. Ciesluk trying to break in another senior for the yearbook.
72. To Mr. Allen, a pair of suspenders.
73. Alan Weiner leaves Commerce quietly.
74. Homeroom 211 leaves Miss Hogan a pair of rubber-soled shoes so she can sneak into homeroom when she is late.
75. Joyce Williams and Malka Yeager leave Miss Costa's speech class with a bag over her head, her hands tied, describing how to comb hair.
76. Roseanna Balser leaves all her Spanish notes to Miss Meunier.
77. Carolyn Gagnon leaves the book "101 Ways on How to Skip and Not Get Caught".
78. Fred Batchelder leaves Mr. Cignoli first prize for his most challenging tests.
79. Class of '76 leaves Mr. Martin a pair of pants . . . one size too big.
80. Darcelle Pharms leaves Mrs. Bennett a year's supply of candy for her next year's classes.
81. Class of '76 leaves the Junior and Freshman classes the best principal Commerce ever had, Mr. Sweeney.
82. To Mr. Albano, we leave an accident-proof toboggan.
83. We leave three years of our lives, which are gone forever, and we wonder where the time went.
84. To our faculty, we leave our deep thanks for their kindness and advice and for the knowledge and skills we have gained from them.

SPORTS

GIRLS TRACK

FIRST ROW: Lillian Morrison, Lynne Scott, Diane Burton, Jocelyn Joseph, Diane Brown, Pat Kelly, Leeta Witherspoon SECOND ROW: Valerie Morris, Valerie King, Robin Brown, Denise Frisbee, Javonne Majors, Lisa Carter, Lurna Williamson, Kim Rousseau, Rita Stewart.

"What a jump!"

Practicing before the meet.

"We better take our laps."

The girls Track team had a good season. The outstanding distance runners of the team were Daisy and Lillian. As the season progressed, the team had more spirit. Mrs. Williams anticipates a good year next year.

"Look out below!"

Taking it easy.

"Here we come."

"Talk about close!"

"I bet I can beat you!"

Coaches wait to start practice.

"I've got you now"

"I'm still holding the ball"

"I almost made a touchdown"

This was a bleak won-loss year for our team. Many good things happened to make up for our record. Art Robinson and Aaron Cole made the All District League Team. Keith Partlow, Bob Rose, Troy Jimmerson, Aaron Cole and Art Tobinon made the All City Team. Besides this we had many other outstanding ball players such as Barry Brown, Steve Newton, Mitchell Smith, Tyler Washington, and Mike King. Our Defensive Team was Number 3 in the League and our offense dead last. All in all as far as performance the team did really great.

"Watch this fancy foot work"

"Can he make it?"

HOCKEY

"What do we have here?"

"I don't understand this."

"OH no! I lost that one!"

"What a game!"

The Commerce Hockey Team hit bad times this season with a 1 win 15 loses and 2 tie record. Although they were overpowered by the other teams, they showed the true Raider spirit all season long. The teams coaches were Mr. Burgess and Bill Mack. Jay Randolph was the team captain.

"Where did that puck go?"

"That was a close one."

"You're not getting this puck away from me!"

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

SOCCER

"How long do you think I can balance this on my knee?"

"Im all tired out!"

This year's soccer team won one game and lost nine. Aside from the fact that their record was not very good, Glenn Ladd, Tom Dion, Tom Goodwin, and Pete Bonavita were all good players. Tom Goodwin made all city this year. Coach Martin said that they are looking forward to next season. Some of the players will be coming back next year and they are hoping for a better year.

"You won't trick me!"

One giant leap . . .

WRESTLING

Conciltation before practice.

"Have you had enough?"

As usual, the same people you can depend on for Football plus a few newcomers made the season fairly successful. Keigh Partlow, Bob Rose, Tom Ivery, Victor Phillips, Wayne Tait, Tony Bailey, and Brian Thomas were the main reason for this years success. Each one of these wrestlers made every practice and every meet. Individual won-loss records were really terrific with the team records not doing so well. This is a tough sport and it seems that only a few good men can find the time to take part in it.

"Hey Coach, what is my time?"

"When will this match end?"

All tied up.

FIRST ROW: Mark Willmont, Mike King, Arthur Corder SECOND ROW: Theodore Graham, Craig Chernack, Tom Minie, Robert Rose THIRD ROW: Tom Bass, David Groomes, Keith Partlow, Ruben Borrero.

"I'm sure glad that's over with."

"A head start is all it takes."

"Up and over."

TRACK

"He's got him at the finish line".

The Track team found itself at the end of the season without a win. Coach Ryan says this is because there was much competition. Even the aggressive skill of Keith Bartlow, Tom Bass, Teddy Graham, Tony Hamer, Mike King, Tom Minie, and Bob Rose could not do the job, but they gave it their best.

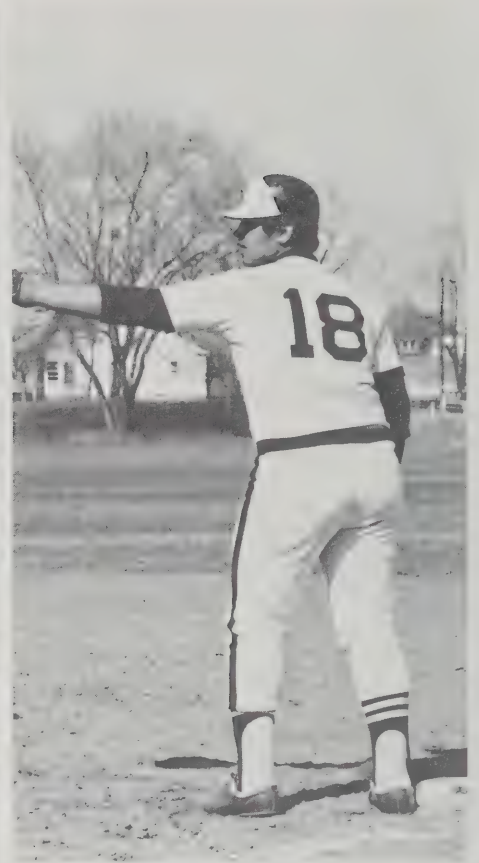

Trying to get a good jump.

"There goes a winner."

"Finally here!"

KNEELING: Elton Hardy, Clauzelle Blacksheare STANDING: Coach Mike Martin, Tom Bass, Mark Hall, Arthur Robinson, Allen Williams, Steven Wright, Tony Hamer, David Smith, Greg Pickney

The boys basketball team enjoyed another very successful season this year having only 2 loses and winning a spot in the Western Mass Tournament, but losing a close one to Tech in the finals. The team captain was Clauzell Blackshear, and Mr. Martin was the coach.

CHEERLEADERS

"Let's here it for Commerce!"

Cheering for 1976.

"Is everyone ready?"

"up we go"

The Cheerleaders, coached by Mrs. O'Dell, are fifteen strong and very impressive. Their spirited gyrations, intricate patterns, and general enthusiasm showed the team and student body the ingredients of the winning spirit.

Waiting for the game.

"We've got the spirit."

"I don't know how long I can keep this up".

DRILL TEAM

FIRST ROW: Alenjandrina Rivera, Angela Foti, Carman Watts, Magdalia Aguino, Charlene Moffett, Kim Clark, Julie Ferrati, Darlene Brown
SECOND ROW: Linda Rooney, Dorothea Stewart, Maureen Taylor, Laurie Bulley, Patricia Hayes, Sarah Schween, Mary Ann Stoller, Carla Woods, Elaine Youngs.

"I think we are going the wrong way".

"Is it our turn to march yet?"

The girls Drill team, under the direction of Mrs. Vaughn, were very active this year, taking part in many sporting events and several rallies. They take time out after school and practice. The girls this year were very enthusiastic about marching for rallies and various games.

"What do we do now?"

"Why are we the only ones left?"

BOWLING

The varsity bowling team enjoyed a very succesful season. They won the first round competition and lost the second round in a role off to Putnam High School. The team was at a disadvantage for the role off, with two varsity members out ill. Al LaBroad and Ed Manchester were the teams top bowlers. Mr. Ellison was the coach.

TENNIS

"Better luck next year."

"Wow what a great hit."

"Hey, this is the way."

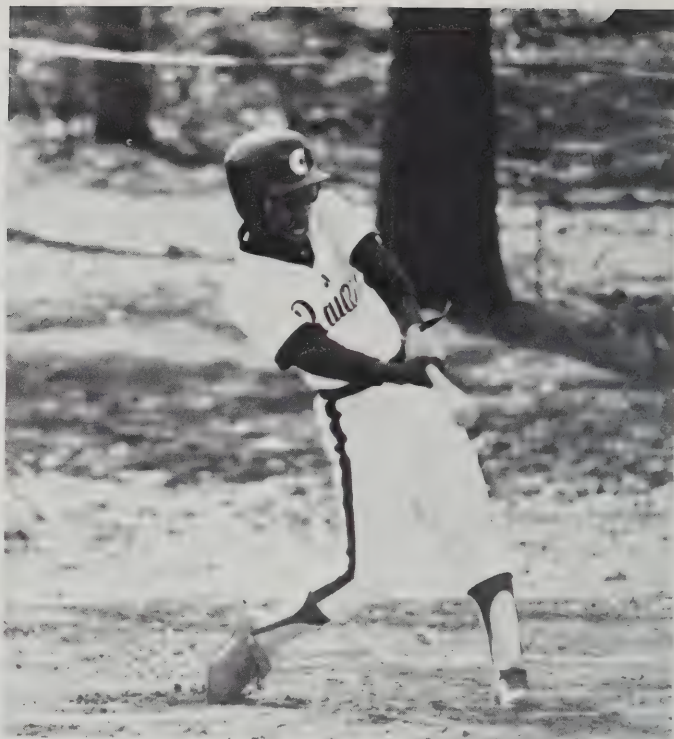

"Look at that ball go."

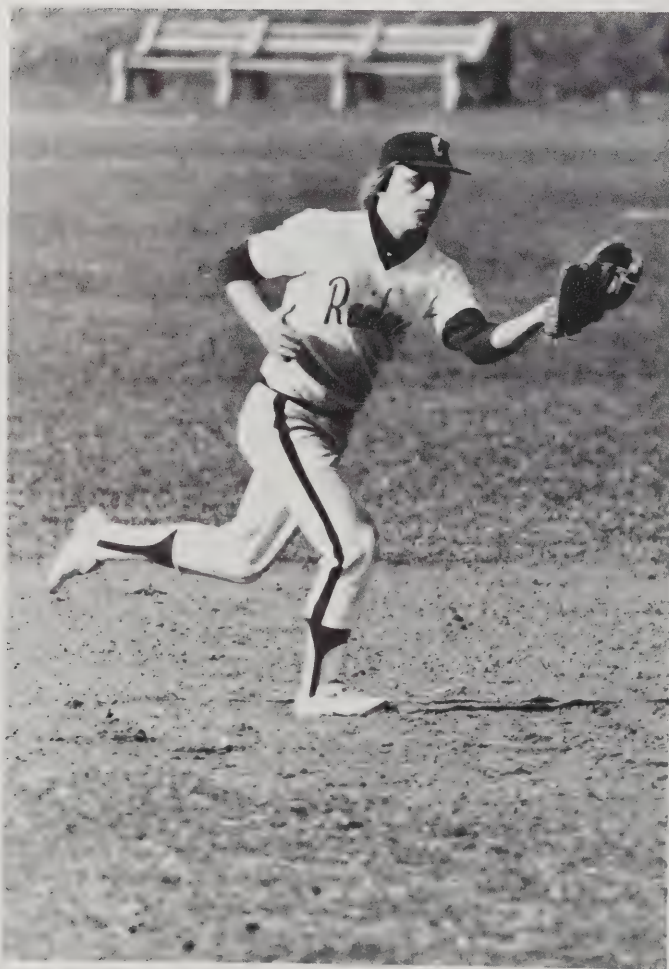

The most outstanding player was Karen Colonna. It was the first year for a tennis team here at the High School of Commerce. Even though the tennis team tried, it was a bad season. Mr. Coleman said that tennis is a rapidly growing sport and he is hoping to see new faces on the team.

BASEBALL

This years Baseball team had 6 wins and 11 losses, which was highlighted by a 24-7 win over Belchertown. The Raider attack was headed by rightfielder Doug Nadeau and shortstop Ken Kelleher. The teams pitchers were Kendall Ross, James Gee, John Auclair, and Marc Pedroza.

"It's a hit!"

"What a catch!"

"Look at that arm!"

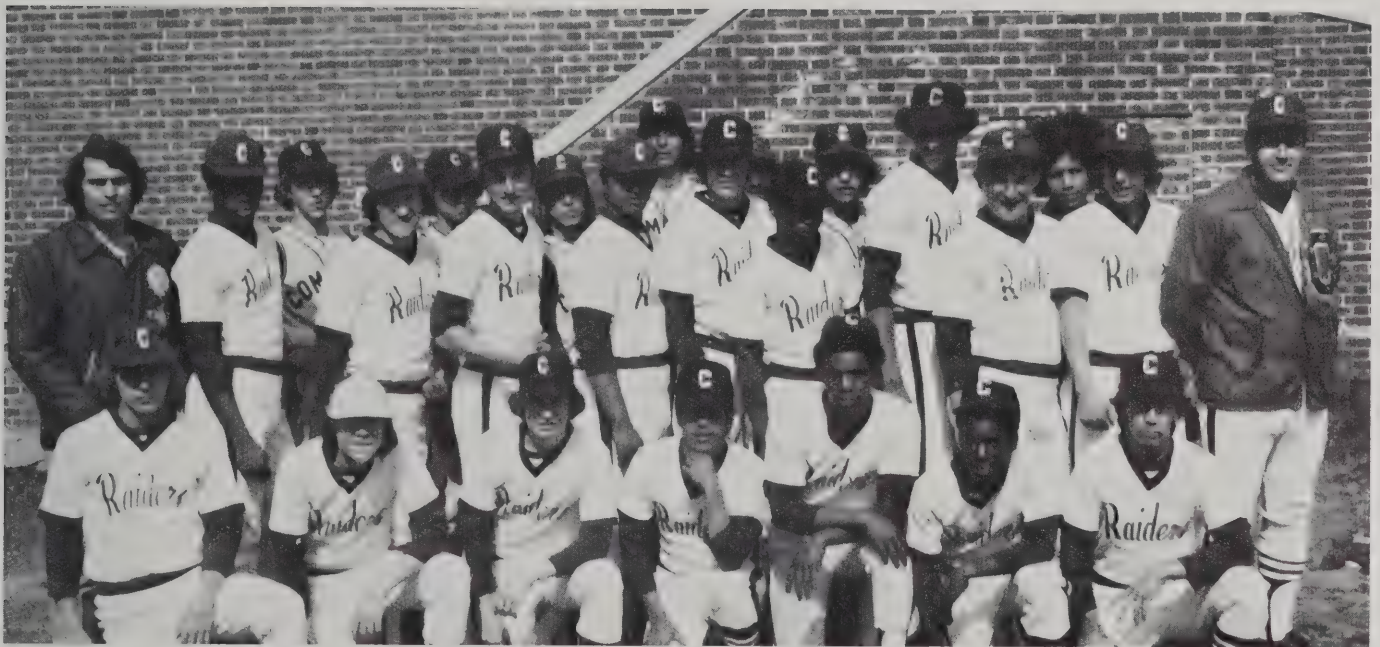

Anticipation.

"Our fans."

"He's got it."

"Score!"

Another Raider run.

GIRL'S SOFTBALL

This years softball team were the city champs. They had a record of 7 wins and 7 losses. The highlight of the season was the last game against Classical in which we won 8-7. The teams outstanding players were Kathy Coughlin, Silvia Penna, Emily Gillis, Pat Alli, Cindy Starnek, and Robin Timothy. The team captain, Kathy Coughlin, was a good team leader. They had just as many victories as they had defeats.

"Look! She made it."

"Should I sit on the base?"

"I missed the ball."

"I'll show you how it's done."

"I said you are out."

"I wonder how my pitching arm is."

"Is everyone ready?"

Waiting for the ball.

GOLF

Mr. Conchieri, Scott Marchese, Richard Scott, Wayne Marchese.

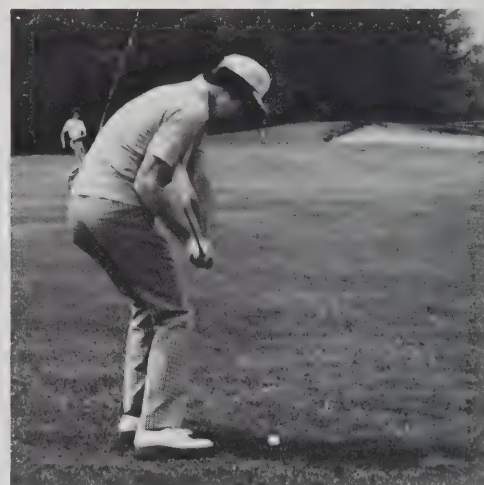

The golf team had a record of 3 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. The teams top players were Wayne and Scott Marchese. All of this years golf team earned a spot in the Western Mass. Golf Tournament. The teams coach was Mr. Conchieri.

"What style!"

"Boy, is he in trouble!"

"Four!"

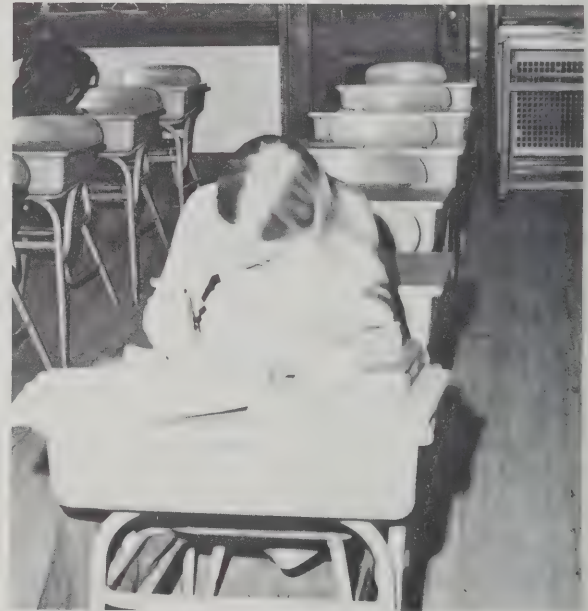

"Looks easy, doesn't it?"

"Where's the ball?"

The National Honor Society Induction Ceremony was happy to have Dr. Stanley O. Smith, a former principal of Commerce, as a speaker. He became principal from 1960 until 1953. The National Honor Society was not in existence until it received its constitution in 1960. In the National Honor Society this year there are ten more members than last year. This year's membership has been the largest in the history of the National Honor Society at Commerce. All money made from the selling of academic products is used for scholarships. The reports at the meetings start off with the president opening the meeting. After the meeting has begun a treasurer's and secretary's report is read.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. Josten's has long been a partner to these educational leaders in providing a means of motivation and the rewards of recognition, and Josten's products have become tangible symbols honoring perseverance and achievement.

The class ring is representative of the fine traditions of school spirit and unity □
The yearbook provides a lasting memento of the year's accomplishments □ The diploma is a lifelong record of scholastic success □ The graduation announcement heralds this achievement □ Awards recognize academic and athletic leadership.

More than 3,000 Josten's employees are dedicated to your complete satisfaction. Serving you locally:
